

Announcement: Leader of PCMA UW archaeological project in Ethiopia

In connection with the establishing of a cooperation between the Polish Centre of Mediterranean Archaeology, University of Warsaw, and the University of Mekelle (Ethiopia), we are seeking a highly motivated individual wishing to start research in Ethiopia as a leader of a PCMA UW project in the archeology of Ethiopia (from the Axum period to the Middle Ages). Prior experience related to archaeological work in Ethiopia is not necessary.

Minimum basic requirements:

- PhD degree in the field of humanities,
- Experience in team management,
- Knowledge of the archaeology of North-Eastern Africa, demonstrated through scientific publications,
- Excellent oral and written communication in English.

Additional requirements:

- Experience in the archeology of Ethiopia – in particular for the periods from Axum to the Middle Ages, demonstrated through scientific publications
- Knowledge of archaeological and architectural documentation techniques,
- Experience in obtaining funds for scientific research,
- Communicative knowledge of languages used in Ethiopia will be an advantage.

Responsibilities:

Responsibilities include leading PCMA UW field research in Ethiopia (minimum 2 months of fieldwork a year) and submission of project activity reports. The successful candidate will conduct scientific research on the culture and history of Ethiopia, and will publish the results of that research in the form of monographs and articles in high-ranking international scientific journals.

Required documents:

- CV with the clause of consent for the processing of personal data (in accordance with the attached document),

- Cover letter,
- Documents confirming the submitted information,
- Contact data to at least one referee (including name, surname, telephone number, e-mail address).

Documents should be sent by e-mail to the following address: pcma@uw.edu.pl or by post to the following address:

Polish Centre of Mediterranean Archaeology, University of Warsaw,
Nowy Świat 4 street, 00-497 Warsaw

The deadline for submitting the documents is 15 December 2018

Candidates will be informed individually about the dates of their interview.
